

Information for recruitment agencies

The Careers Service deals with private agencies representing employers where:

- an employer has commissioned the agency to act on their behalf and the agency states which employer it represents, provides information about, and selects only for the named employer
- we are satisfied that such representation is clearly in the interests of students and graduates of the University

We will therefore accept and advertise vacancies provided that the employer is declared by the agency and named in the vacancy entry.