

FutureMe – a User’s Guide

What is FutureMe?

The Careers & Employability Centre has recently launched a fantastic new service that will enable graduates to efficiently manage their career journey after they finish studying at the University of the Highlands and Islands. This service is called FutureMe.

FutureMe gives all registered students the ability to:

- Book and manage appointments with your careers adviser
- Find, search and book on to events advertised by the Careers Services
- Upload and get feedback on your CV
- Search, save and manage job advertisements and opportunities
- Submit careers related questions online

How to find FutureMe

Step 1: Go to www.uhi.ac.uk/careers

Use our service wherever you are.

- Email
- Skype
- Video conference
- Phone
- Face-to-face

Look up, look forward, be in the know

FutureMe is the new platform designed to support your career development as a student. Graduates of the university can also access this service regardless of when you graduated (you will need to create an account on first use).

Using FutureMe allows you to access all the support you need to develop and manage your career, providing you the opportunity to Book and manage appointments with us. Find, search and book onto our events; Upload your CV for feedback; Access the JobShop to find part-time work, internships, volunteering opportunities and graduate jobs locally, nationally and internationally. Submit careers related questions online.
