

Course: BSc(Hons) Applied Software Development (UI310)

Module: Software Services

This module aims to provide students with the skills to incorporate third-party software into their software, using libraries, frameworks and APIs. Students will look at the wider problem of meeting customer needs and combatting threats to their business. This module will aim to enable students to be more creative and self-motivated to achieve the goals in their Personal Development Plans.