<sup>1</sup> Students with a 12-credit HNC Social Sciences can enter all the courses listed here at first year level. Students with a 15-credit HNC Social Sciences can choose to enter all the courses listed here at second year level or begin at first year level if you wish to gain an extra year's experience of study in this subject.

<sup>2</sup> Entrants at second year level may be required to select a first-year core module to undertake alongside your second-year modules. This would be instead of, and not in addition to, one second year module.

<sup>3</sup> Entrants to the Archaeology programme may also have the option to study a degree 'with a year in industry' to enhance your skills and experience. Please contact the Programme Leader for Archaeology (see below) for more information.
